IN THE CAPITAL: LISBOA

There are many good reasons to choose Lisbon as a destination for your unforgettable event. Lisbon is just a few hours flying time from other European countries, just 1 to 3 hours from most of the main European cities and 5 to 8 hours from America.

The competitive prices which the Portuguese capital can offer is another considerable advantage. The cost of living is below the average of large European capitals and the competitive pricing of hotel accommodation and the hire of rooms mean that Lisbon is one of the best destinations in terms of quality/price.

Lisbon is also the only European capital with beaches just 20 minutes away, not to mention some truly magical towns such as Sintra or Cascais, the cosmopolitan resort town which even today preserves its Victorian charm.

Finally, the city of Lisbon is a great host. Its centuries old culture of tolerance and role as a crossroads of peoples makes it the perfect destination for any event. We're sure that you'll feel at home.
